

Take-up takes-off at Lanseria Corporate Estate

Positive take-up and purchaser interest are on the rise at Lanseria Corporate Estate. A number of sizeable transactions have already been concluded for premises at this recently launched, superbly situated logistics and modern high grade industrial property estate, located next to Lanseria International Airport in the North West of Johannesburg.

South Africa's largest second-hand value retailer, Cash Crusaders, is investing in a new 7 000m² distribution centre on a prime 11 500m² site at the brand new Lanseria Corporate Estate.

Located in the heart of the Lanseria node, which is showing excellent growth and is earmarked to be a future growth node in Gauteng, the 90 hectare Lanseria Corporate Estate has also attracted the interest of many other corporate and industrial concerns.

This carefully planned estate is an integrated and sustainable development by an investment consortium including Efcon Capital and New Property Ventures, marketed by Montagu Property Group and Property Logic.
